

Come Regatta Racing and Cruising in Thailand

The 23rd Bay Regatta

5th to 11th February 2020

Phuket – Phang Nga Bay – Krabi

From only $3,080 per person*

4 days regatta racing plus extra cruising days
Party each night at exotic resort locations

Allsail Sailing Club is returning in 2020 for its seventh assault at the Bay Regatta – This the most fun live aboard regatta and resort party event on the Asian sailing calendar. Our yachts place second and third in 2017, third in 2018 after winning the major round the islands race at Krabi and 3rd in 2019.

In 2019 we are planning a two yacht team of brand new Jeanneau 440s racing with asymmetrical spinnakers – we're attacking next year's event with speed and style in these new generation yachts.

The regatta offers four days of racing and sailing through some of the most spectacular scenery in the world. The event is a fun competition that showcases the beauty of the islands and mainland of Phuket, Phang Nga and Krabi provinces in southern Thailand. Up to 50 local & international crews are expected to compete.

Regatta parties, dinners and shows are planned at major resorts along the way.

In past years the welcoming party was at the Chandara Resort and Spa at Ao Po, then Paradise Beach Resort on Koh Yao Noi, the Railey Beach Resort – and the final party and prize giving presentations at Kan Eang II in Ao Chalong. 2020 venues are yet to be finalised.

All four regatta/ resort dinner functions are included. The end of regatta party is on in Ao Chalong so for 2020 we have again included an extra night resort accommodation onshore so the crews can freshen up and relax pre and post the presentation- and before we set off again for the two extra cruising days around the picturesque islands and waterways near Phuket.

This is a fabulous opportunity for those sailors who can only get away for a short time and the budget airfares to Phuket are very affordable.

Winners are grinners – Race 3 2018

2019 Jeanneau 440

You pre-board the yachts around 11am to noon on day one prior to briefing and departure. Then it's out for a familiarisation cruise and some practice with our gennaker/ spinnaker before anchoring off the first resort. Onshore we use the resort facilities, register for the regatta and enjoy the welcoming dinner and party.

Each yacht will be pre provisioned for breakfasts and lunches and snacks while sailing as appropriate - with top ups along the way. Each yacht runs a kitty for this purpose and to cover any port or park fees, yacht diesel etc as they arise. Initial contribution is generally 150AUD per person -. Thailand is a very cheap destination when it comes to your onshore expenditure.

There are functions planned for each night of the regatta. We anchor and are taken ashore by longtail boats. The resorts really turn it on for the yachties with fabulous food, all you can drink and village bands and fire shows to entertain. Other nights we eat onshore at rustic local restaurants or resorts.

Racing is in the morning when the tropical wind is up - so there's plenty of time for sightseeing, swimming, and shopping

How to pay:

You pay a deposit of $1400 per person to reserve your berth or cabin. This is no-refundable if you later pull out unless we fill your spot. Deposits are payable on completion of booking form. Final payment is due 10 weeks before the regatta date. Specific details are available on the booking form. AUD prices are based on the May 2019 AUD:EUR exchange rate. They may be subject to review if there is a significant change in the exchange rate before receipt of final payment.

We ask you to get your deposit in promptly. Allsail has to pay the charterers significant deposits to guarantee we keep the best appropriate and competitive yachts. We don't like to travel second class when regatta racing or flotilla sailing.

If you want to come in early as many do – or stay on - we can advise re pre and post cruising options. We require you to take out travel insurance to protect yourself against unforeseen issues or if you cannot travel.

We want you to have a memorable trip like all of the previous Allsail sailing adventures. That's why we have so many repeat cruisers. Talk to Russell or Cherie at any time for some hints. As a couple we budget an average AUD120 per day for the kitty, food, extras etc and we usually do it very well for this cost. It's easy to stay well under this in Thailand – but you could spend more depending on your style.
