

Platinum Membership (Leeward) – Allsail Sailing Club

Leeward, a 2010 Beneteau First 40, is the premium yacht in the Allsail Sailing Club non equity yacht share fleet. She is a luxury performance three cabin, one bathroom 40-foot yacht - easily handled by a couple cruising or raced with a full crew.

Designed by Farr yachts with a stunning contemporary interior fit out, she is one of Beneteau's most successful performance cruising yachts. – with performance rig and sails - but many extras to make for comfortable cruising and chartering.

Leeward is available for private use by her lucky Platinum members and is also used for training, overnight cruising, and charters. She competes in races such as the RMYC Monday Twilight Series from October to March with members as the crew - plus selected other races and major regattas.

Allsail Sailing Club is offering a limited number of Platinum Club Memberships on Leeward which include special benefits and privileges for use of this fabulously well-presented cruiser/ racer.

What does a Platinum Member get?

- 24 days a year private use of Leeward on Pittwater, Broken Bay, Cowan Creek, and the Hawkesbury (2 weekend days/ 4 weekdays per quarter - includes overnighting)
- Priority crewing rights on Leeward for nominated twilights and inshore races + discounted first option on major races such as Sydney Harbour Regatta and Sail Port Stephens
- 7 days a week access - based on a mooring or berth at Church Point*
- 24/7 online booking facility

Plus, all the other Allsail Sailing Club member benefits - which include joining sailing sessions on other Allsail yachts from time to time - and Australian Sailing personal insurance whilst sailing - as Allsail is an affiliated club.

What does it cost for Platinum Membership?

Platinum Membership of Allsail Sailing Club involves a once only joining/ set up fee of $445 and a low membership fee of $2,400 per quarter. Platinum Members can save by paying their membership in advance half yearly or annually.

The joining/set up fee covers administration, vessel set up fees, etc - plus an extended training and familiarisation session for the member (and partner) pre any private use.
